

Information for Artists Considering Participation in the Sunriver Women's Club (SRWC) Virtual Winter Crafts Fair on Eventeny

1. Eventeny is an online software platform that hosts artists' "shops" and art fairs.
  - You own your shop and you can modify it at any time.
  - There is no charge for creating your virtual shop on Eventeny.
  - Your shop is only open to the public during the art fairs to which you have applied and been accepted.
  - Your shop remains on the Eventeny site after the Crafts Fair ends.
    - You can apply to participate in other art fairs hosted on Eventeny.
    - Each fair has its own requirements for artists to participate in their event.
    - Artists can participate in more than one art fair at the same time.
    - View some of the fairs.
  - Selling on Eventeny FAQ

2. You create your shop on Eventeny. A range of resources are available to assist you including:
  - Instructions for building your shop are posted on the SRWC website.
  - E-mail and chat help to assist with shop construction.
  - Instructional videos for building your shop are posted on Eventeny.
  - Additional resources to help you maximize your success.

3. You manage packaging and shipping, including costs, for all items you sell on Eventeny.
  - Shipping options include free, fixed, calculate, and self-delivery.
  - If you choose the calculate option, you provide product weight and dimensions for each item. Eventeny auto-calculates shipping costs to a specific address.
  - Selling on Eventeny FAQ

4. Eventeny charges 5% of every transaction hosted on their platform.

5. Eventeny requires artists to use the STRIPE payment system. STRIPE charges 2.9 % plus $0.30 for each transaction.

6. Your shop will be actively linked to the SRWC Virtual Winter Crafts Fair site on Eventeny after you have paid shop fee ($40 for two months)